Cumberland Honey

Folk, soul & Americana with a taste of bluegrass · Cumberland County, PA

New album Sweet Talk out now · DelFest 2025 · Opened for Sam Bush 2026

About

Cumberland Honey is a four-piece band from Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. They write and play original folk and soul songs with some bluegrass mixed in, and all four of them sing harmony. On stage that means upright bass, resonator guitar, pedal steel, bouzouki, mandolin and harmonica.

Their first full-length album, Sweet Talk, came out in June 2026. It includes "Mornin' Light," "River" and "Soul to Call Home." Their Stand Up EP came out in 2019.

Highlights

- DelFest 2025: Bloody Mary Bluegrass Brunch
- Opened for Sam Bush: XL Live, Harrisburg PA (2026)
- The Getdown 2026: Cabinet's 20th anniversary, with Keller & the Keels and Spafford
- Pine Ridge Music Festival 2026: with Fireside Collective
- Live on ABC27 Good Day PA (2025, 2026) and WITF Music
- Central PA Music Hall of Fame nominee, 2021–2025

Lineup

Steph Landis: upright bass, vocals

Grace Mahar: resonator guitar, vocals

Gena Lanette: slide guitar, pedal steel, Irish bouzouki, mandolin, vocals

Llewyn Malick: harmonica, vocals

Press

> "Soaring harmonies, exquisitely crafted songwriting wrapped into a heartfelt, old-timey sound with superb musicianship... Highly recommended — 100% real music."
>
> — Jeff Oshetski, Willie Jack and the Northern Light

Listen

Bandcamp · Apple Music · Spotify

Full EPK, video, photos & stage plot:
cumberlandhoney.com/epk

Booking: cumberlandhoney@gmail.com

cumberlandhoney.com · @cumberlandhoneypa